		Working Pattern:	Term Time (39 weeks) only + 4 days for exam result days
Reports to:	Headteacher (or designated member of SLT)	Supervises:	Teaching assistants or tutors

Purpose:

- To act as lead professional supporting and promoting an inclusive culture throughout the school; including promoting activities that will enhance student's personal development and achievement
- To support students and their families by providing practical and emotional support through early intervention, partnership with key agencies and links between home and school
- To coordinate targeted work around safeguarding, attendance, behaviour, well-being, reintegration, or transition to other settings
- To carry out on call support for students and staff, ensuring that students are engaging with learning
- To provide an effective and efficient management and administration of all aspects of public and internal examinations – ensuring entries, registration and results are accurately recorded and collated in accordance with school policy, awarding bodies and JCQ regulations (further details to be discussed)
- To effectively deliver the NCFE Level 2 Award or Certificate in Employability Skills, with learners successfully demonstrating their engagement and enjoyments with achievement of the Level 2 qualifications

Principal Accountabilities:

- To coordinate pastoral support and activities with staff and partner agencies (including statutory, non-statutory and voluntary sectors) to ensure a high-quality support and outcomes for students.
- To promote positive behaviour and provide support for others in implementing the school's behaviour policy, including implementation of appropriate rewards and sanctions.
- To increase attendance and punctuality across the school and provide support to families where attendance and punctuality has become a concern;
- To support others in using agreed school procedures to improve students' punctuality and attendance; this includes preparation of attendance plans with the EWO, and chasing up of incidents of lateness or non-attendance to school or lessons.
- Take a lead on provision for students with special or additional needs, and children looked-after, and to work to the direction of the head teacher, to ensure effective provision to meet needs.
- To work with individual students and small groups on strategies to address needs.
- To provide guidance and assistance in identifying children with learning, behavioural, medical or emotional difficulties and children with English as an additional language

- To provide support and guidance to parents and carers, encouraging families to develop and sustain positive interactions and strengthen relationships. This may include organising and taking a lead on parenting classes, after hours sessions, or referrals to appropriate services.
- Attend appropriate training to widen knowledge and skills base.
- To lead and attend regular inter agency and review meetings to discuss the needs and progress of identified children, including team around the child, multi agency and child protection meetings
- As lead practitioner for MASH referrals, convene multi-agency meetings to discuss referrals and raise awareness of safeguarding concerns, identifying outcome-based support plan
- To liaise with other agencies including the Early Help, Educational Psychologist, Children's Services, School counsellor, school health service, social services, speech therapists, EWO, SEN, CAHMS etc
- To maintain up to date case records, provide written and verbal reports for meetings and to participate in those meetings as appropriate.
- To monitor student progress through the use of attainment and other evaluative data including the school's tracking system;
- To assist in organising events and activities that focus on achievement, encouraging students to become responsible and caring members of our community; including a termly celebration event
- To facilitate Restorative Approaches and mediation meetings as appropriate and assist in supervising students at break and lunchtimes.
- Assist the Head teacher in keeping parents and Management Committee informed about provision for identified groups.
- To line manage, support and monitor (including performance management) the work of a small team of teaching assistants, tutors and / or exam invigilators
- The examinations duties demand a high level of understanding of data management and their complexities. Precision and accuracy are integral to the work as are the ability to make decisions and exercise use of own initiative. The postholder will be required to work additional hours, as necessary, outside of core hours e.g. during examination periods.

Other Responsibilities

- Data Protection: it is essential when working with computerised systems that you are completely aware of their responsibilities at all times under the Data protection Act 1984 for the security, accuracy, and significance of personal data held on such systems.
- Equal Opportunities: to take responsibility, appropriate to the post for tackling racism and promoting good race, ethnic and community relations.
- Health and Safety: to work in compliance with the School's Health and Safety policies and under the Health and Safety at Work Act (1974), ensuring the safety of all.
- Safeguarding: to have due regard for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and to follow the child protection and safeguarding policies adopted by the school and Southwark Safeguarding Children Board.

This job description will be reviewed annually and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the post holder. It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks but sets out the main expectations of the School in relation to the post holder's professional responsibilities and duties.

Professional Responsibilities:

The job description encompasses the above statements, but the Inclusion Officer should be willing to undertake any other tasks which the Head teacher might reasonably require.
